4. Eligibility

Was the current use of the building as dwellinghouses only granted by virtue of permitted development rights under Schedule 1, Part 3, Class M, N, O, P, PA or Q of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)?

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Was the current building constructed between 1 July 1948 and 5 March 2018?

Yes No

If you have answered No above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Have additional storeys already been added to the original building (as it stood on 1 July 1948, or as built after that date; or, if 'Crown land', as it stood on 7 June 2006, or as built after that date)?

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Would the proposed extended building's:

- height exceed 18m (as measured from ground level to the highest part of the roof); or

- roof be:

- more than 3.5 metres higher than the highest part of the existing roof, where the existing building consists of one storey above ground level; or

- more than 7 metres higher than the highest part of the existing roof, where the existing building consists of more than one storey above ground level.

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

If the dwellinghouse is not detached, would the proposed extension result in the highest part of the roof exceeding 3.5 metres above either:

- the highest part of the roof of the building it is joined to (e.g. by party wall or adjoining main wall); or

- if in a terrace, the highest part of the roof of any building in the row it is situated

Yes No / The dwellinghouse is detached

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Would the floor to ceiling height, measured internally, of any proposed additional storey exceed:

- 3 metres; or

- the floor to ceiling height, measured internally, of any existing storey of the principal part of the existing building

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

4. Eligibility (continued)

Will the proposed additional storeys only be constructed on the principal part of the building (i.e. the main part of the building excluding any front, side or rear extension of a lower height, whether this forms part of the original building or a subsequent addition)?

Yes No

If you have answered No above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Will any proposed engineering operations reasonably necessary to construct the additional storeys include:

- provision of visible support structures on or attached to the exterior of the building upon completion of the development; or
- anything other than works within the existing curtilage of the building to strengthen existing walls and foundations

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Is any part of the land or site on which the building is located:

- article 2(3) land;
- a site of special scientific interest;

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Will the materials used in any exterior work be of a similar appearance to those used in the construction of the exterior of the existing dwellinghouse?

Yes No

If you have answered No above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Will the roof pitch of the principal part of the proposed extended dwellinghouse be the same as the roof pitch of the existing dwellinghouse?

Yes No

If you have answered No above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Will the development include a window in any wall or roof slope forming a side elevation of the building?

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Following the development, will the dwellinghouse be used within Use Class C3 and for no other purpose, unless that purpose is ancillary to the primary use as a dwellinghouse?

Yes No

If you have answered No above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

5. Description of Proposed Works, Impacts and Risks

Please describe the proposed development, including:

- details of any works proposed;
- the external appearance of the dwellinghouse, including the design and architectural features of the principal elevation (and any side elevation that fronts a highway)

It is proposed to construct an additional residential storey on the existing residential property. The additional storey has been carefully and sensitively designed to ensure that it is in complete compliance with all the criteria set out within Schedule 2, Part 1, Class AA.

The roof extension would be 2.9m higher than the existing roof.

The proposed exterior walls will be constructed with bricks to match the existing dwelling.

The proposed windows will be made from white powder coated aluminium to match the window of the existing dwelling.

The extension will correspond to the vernacular of the Calcott estate architecture with matching architectural details.

What is the current height of the dwellinghouse:
(measured externally from ground level to the highest part of the roof)

metres

What will be the height of the dwellinghouse once the additional storeys are added:
(measured externally from ground level to the highest part of the roof)

5. Description of Proposed Works, Impacts and Risks (continued)

Please provide details of the impacts on the amenity of any adjoining premises including overlooking, privacy and the loss of light and how these will be mitigated:

The amenities of the neighbouring properties will be protected and minimally affected as the property is situated at the end of a terrace, and as such the additional floor does not significantly overshadow the neighbours within the same terrace. The next closest neighbour is more than 20 meters away (No.79 Fellow Road), with the facing wall the end of a terrace and without window openings and largely covered by foliage. Therefore the shading or reduction in daylight from the extension will be minimal.

The extension situates windows in line with those below. To the rear of the property triple sliding doors are proposed with a simple metal balustrade at a height of 1100mm above finished floor level. The width of this opening is aligned with the outer line of the existing windows below, and as such does not extend overlooking into neighbouring properties.

The nearest neighbours to the rear elevation are those located on Elliot Square whose rear elevations overlook Adelaide Road. These are approximately 38 meters away. The properties and rear gardens of 7 and 8 Elliot Square are sufficiently far away to not be impacted by the proposed extension.

The adjacent Bray Tower of the Chalcot estate is located approximately 15 meters away. The elevation facing the tower has no openings and as such will not overlook these properties. In addition the portion of the tower aligned with the extension contains no windows and therefore the proposed extension will not significantly impact the daylight reaching the flats within the Bray Tower.

The separation distances between elevations including windows exceed the minimum distance of 18m outlined in the CPG Amenity, section 2.4.

Please provide details of any air traffic and defence asset impacts and how these will be mitigated:

N/A

Where relevant (due to the siting of the building), please provide details of the impact on any protected view.

Note that these are identified in the Directions Relating to Protected Vistas dated 15 March 2012 issued by the Secretary of State.
