Is the proposed operation or use

- Permanent
 Temporary

Why do you consider that a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted for this proposal?

I understand it is a requirement which should be obtained before any works commence and also, the Freeholder has confirmed that they will be unable to provide their consent to change the windows unless a Lawful Development Certificate is granted to change the windows from single glazing to double glazing, and the windows should be wood frame, like for like in appearance.
