Reason for Lawful Development Certificate

Please indicate why you are applying for a lawful development certificate

- An existing use
 Existing building works
 An existing use, building work or activity in breach of a condition

Being a use, building works or activity which is still going on at the date of this application.

Description of Existing Use, Building Works or Activity

Please fully describe each existing use, building works or activity for which you want the lawful development certificate. Where appropriate, show to which part of the land each use, building works or activity relates

Use of part of roof as a terrace with associated railings, fencing, and roof access hatch.

Grounds for application for a Lawful Development Certificate

Under what grounds is the certificate being sought

- The use began more than 10 years before the date of this application
 The use, building works or activity in breach of condition began more than 10 years before the date of this application
 The use began within the last 10 years, as a result of a change of use not requiring planning permission, and there has not been a change of use requiring planning permission in the last 10 years
 The building works (for instance, building or engineering works) were substantially completed more than four years before the date of this application.
 The use as a single dwelling house began more than four years before the date of this application
 Other - please specify (this might include claims that the change of use or building work was not development, or that it benefited from planning permission granted under the Act or by the General Permitted Development Order).

If the certificate is sought on 'Other' grounds please give details

The use of part of the roof as a terrace is lawful because the terrace forms part of a planning unit which comprises a lawful dwelling (see covering letter).

Is the certificate being sought for a use, operation, or activity in breach of a condition or limitation?

- Yes
 No

Please state why a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted

The submitted evidence indicates that the roof terrace, which has been in use for more than 4 years, forms part of a planning unit which comprises a lawful self-contained dwelling for which planning permission has been granted. The evidence also indicates that the associated operational development has been in place for more than 4 years ending with the date of this application. (See submitted evidence and covering letter).
