

From: Anita Gillone

Sent: 15 February 2022 15:18

To: Planning

Subject: objection to cutting down trees on Doughty St

I am writing to express my concerns in regard to the city's plan to cut down two mature London Plane trees in the garden of 8, Doughty Street.

These trees are very old and provide oxygen to the ecosystem of this beautiful neighbourhood.

We can't expect a government to take environmentally sustainable action globally if they do not do so locally.

Please think about this.

Kind Regards,

Anita Gillone