Subject: Objection 2022/0419/T

I write with regard to two large London plane trees situated at 8 Doughty Street in Bloomsbury, Camden (the trees).

I think it imperative that the trees are retained since my understanding is that a reasonable plan can be formulated to ensure their continued and long-standing co-existence with their nearby buildings. This plan should be allowed to be developed and implemented, with reviews as may be necessary/appropriate.

Further, the environmental and aesthetic benefit and value of these trees (and of all trees in this densely populated and built up area in central London) is massive.

Thank you for registering my strong objection to the trees being felled

Regards.

Sent from my work address but unconnected.
