Dear Sir,

I am writing with regard to the trees at 8 Doughty St to express my concern at plans to remove them. The trees form a significant ecosystem for birds and wildlife and form a tranquil and restful experience in Central London. It would most certainly be a mistake now to remove the trees when a plan is being formulated to enable the trees and nearby buildings to co-exist in harmony.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Geraldine Earlam
