Dear Sirs or Madame

I'm writing to object to the tree felling of the reference above on 8 Doughty Street.

My partner who owns a flat on Doughty street and I strongly believe that the tree should stay part of the beautiful surroundings. I cannot imagine why anyone would want to take away this stunning part of nature.

London is build up as it is and felling further trees are inexplicable, especially as a highly-skilled arboriculturalist has been employed to assess any damage and design ways to keep the tree.

I believe residents have a strong case against this felling and appeal to your care for nature and Bloomsbury natural heritage.

With best wishes,
Dilek
