Description of Proposed Works
Please describe the proposed works
Replacement of all the first floor windows. The previous owner has installed cheap UPVC windows and they urgently need replacing (the are not properly insulated and they are rotting with black mould formation). We propose to replace them with double glazed aluminium windows properly insulated. We propose to match the original design of the street for one of them at the front of the house (which is located in the continuity of the other mews houses). We propose to update the design for the other windows (which are not in direct continuity with the neighbouring houses).
Has the work already been started without consent? ○ Yes ⊙ No
