2021/3225/P	Carol	02/03/2022 18:26:09	OBJ	The scale of the development and removal of views is completely wrong for the area. Access and visibility of green space is proven to improve mental health. Additionally the embodied carbon is horrific, any scheme should in this location should be an exemplar and by that take into account the current climate crisis. It is a lazy design which purely chases profit.
