Role Purpose:

As a Case Manager for the Youth Justice Service, you will:

- Manage a case load of youth justice cases, work innovatively with children from diverse backgrounds and engage them and their families and other professionals in order to assess, develop and deliver intervention and activities that support their personal and social skills and participation in society
- Directly contribute to youth justice service outcomes by creatively engaging children who are subject to youth justice orders and also who are at risk of anti-social behaviour, crime, becoming NEET and substance misuse.

Example outcomes or objectives that this role will deliver:

- Working within a multi-disciplinary team, to be responsible for all aspects of case management of youth justice cases, including dealing with non-compliance issues swiftly and effectively in compliance with local and national standards and inspection frameworks
- To effectively engage with children from diverse backgrounds at all stages of case management including during assessment, review and delivery of interventions/programmes.

- To gather information, analyse and assess in order to manage risk, re-offending and safety/wellbeing accurately using appropriate screening and assessment tools; taking necessary measures to ensure welfare needs are dealt with effectively and public protection considerations are effectively managed.
- To represent the YJS in the Youth Magistrates' and Crown Court providing advice and support to children, their families and the judiciary. Undertaking assessments within a secure area will also be part of the role when working in court.
- To act as lead professional for allocated cases and work collaboratively with partners using a family based approach to work towards increasing children and family resilience.
- Working collaboratively with children and a wide range of agencies, adopt creative and innovative approaches to deliver effective evidence based group or individual interventions/programmes to reduce the risk of offending and disengagement from education, training and employment
- To adopt a restorative approach in engaging children and work together with colleagues to support opportunities to repair harm.
- To maintain clear, precise and appropriate case management records on IT client information systems, in accordance with local and national standards and in line with data protection guidelines
- Prepare, deliver and participate in the running of group work programmes.

Camden Way Five Ways of Working

In order to continue delivering for the people of Camden in the face of ever increasing financial pressure, we need to transform the way we do things. We call this the Camden Way. The Camden Way is a key part of our transformation strategy often referred to as the transformation triangle which links the Camden Plan, the Camden Way and the Financial Strategy together.

The Camden Way illustrates the approach that should underpin everything we do through five ways of working:

- Deliver for the people of Camden
- Work as one team
- Take pride in getting it right
- Find better ways
- Take personal responsibility
