This ugly back view of a number of tall freezers dominates the street scene and is definitely NOT IN KEEPING with the harmony in this area that Camden so far has managed to achieve between businesses and residential . There are already projecting illuminated garish signs advertising the shop. These are not appropriate for a property that is adjacent to a conservation area and listed buildings - and, therefore, should be removed as soon as possible. This shop is breaking all the rules.
