I was reliant on the launderette. I now do my own washing by hand. It's laborious and inefficient. Dry-cleaners will also do laundry. But they cost a lot and have caused problems with my dry-cleaning in the past. I do know of the Belsize Village launderette. But given my COPD and joint problems, I could not carry heavy washing there and bring it back, as I used to do fairly easily between here and England's Lane.
