

Application No:	Consultees Name:	Received:	Comment:	Response:
2022/0528/P	Pauline Swindells	04/04/2022 16:07:20	COMMNT	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What is needed throughout London is homes for essential workers that they can afford, not so-called luxury developments 2. The development is far too dense - a forest of tower blocks. In the past, when Camden had its own architects' department, successful low rise developments were built. 3. Essential amenities should be retained and improved - a large supermarket, cinema, health centre and improvements to all affected stations, in particular step-free access.
2022/0528/P	Pauline Swindells	04/04/2022 16:07:15	COMMNT	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What is needed throughout London is homes for essential workers that they can afford, not so-called luxury developments 2. The development is far too dense - a forest of tower blocks. In the past, when Camden had its own architects' department, successful low rise developments were built. 3. Essential amenities should be retained and improved - a large supermarket, cinema, health centre and improvements to all affected stations, in particular step-free access.
2022/0528/P	Pauline Swindells	04/04/2022 16:07:04	COMMNT	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What is needed throughout London is homes for essential workers that they can afford, not so-called luxury developments 2. The development is far too dense - a forest of tower blocks. In the past, when Camden had its own architects' department, successful low rise developments were built. 3. Essential amenities should be retained and improved - a large supermarket, cinema, health centre and improvements to all affected stations, in particular step-free access.
2022/0528/P	Philippe Durrant	02/04/2022 08:13:02	OBJ	This is a bad idea which I object to as a resident of West Hampstead. It will make the area less desirable as a location to live in, and much more unpleasant.