Dear Jenna

Thank you for your email. In response to your questions:

- There will be approximately 10 employees including receptionists etc and Chief administrative staff on the top floor. Chief envisage up to 50 members at any one time. Occupation / use will be similar in many ways to the former occupant World Cancer Research Fund International, a membership organisation for researchers in the cancer field.
- Evening functions may be one or two per month for members. 'Public' in this context means open to all members rather than selected members for a specific topic. All are related to continuing professional development. Recent (exciting!) topics in the USA have been:
