Dear

My Name is Joe Timur and I been a trader at camden for the last 14 years and have a new place at The Food Hall. We were relieved when we were granted an extension of the premises licence as it gave us hope. We seek flexibility in hours to trade to our locals who work and live directly above and around us. They don't understand why they can't have access in the early evening as we are very well run, clean, calm and a safe place to spend a few hours relaxing with food and a drink. Hawley Wharf needs footfall and I would be surprised if the residents of Hawley Wharf are objecting to this as we would know by now if we were doing things badly. Please grant this extension.

Best Regards

Joe Timur
