2022/0528/P	Jane	13/05/2022 20:18:04	OBJ	It looks like the O2 is going completely, why? This is a relatively new building and could be repurposed. Could Homebase not move to where Habitat was. The garden centre is invaluable. If you really cared about green spaces you;d at least incorporate a garden centre in the scheme. We know ;affordable; has lost its meaning - honestly there needs to be some social housing here for people who cant afford ;affordable;. The tower blocks are still very tall, was nothing learnt from Grenfell? I hope Camden Council can agree a more socially ambitious plan for this area
