Dear Mr Wong

I am writing to object to the planning permission to turn the gym into 18 flats. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

The new proposal of 18 flats in this location must be rejected. The proposals include access to the flat roof at the rear which would result in a direct vantage point into our bedrooms. The noise and disruption, including all the proposed demolition will make our house unlivable for the next two years. The developer has clearly tried to play the system by applying for permitted development of the three units, which were bad enough but acceptable.

18 units in this location is not acceptable at all and there can be no access allowed on to the roof as this would render our bedrooms and balcony as public rather than private.

Kind regards
