Please state why a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted

City, University of London ceased using the building in Q4 2020, following which legal tuition moved to another part of the campus. Knowing of the impending vacation of the building, City, University of London had, in the first quarter of 2020, instructed Gerald Eve to market the space. Since being vacated the space has continued to be fitted out as a self-contained teaching facility. Contracts were exchanged with another educational user for the assignment of City's leasehold interest on 15 May 2022. In the current market, and given the recent covid-19 pandemic, this period between the initial instruction of the agents and exchange of contracts is not at all unusual for a building of this nature
