Dear Mr Marfleet

I am writing to pose my strongest objections to the planned developments for the Great Ormond St Hospital. I have resided in Bloomsbury for many many years and wish to see out my remaining few years (I am 86 years of age) in peace and quiet in the conservation area I pay handsomely to live in!

The first I heard of the plans was from a poster in a shop window...no consultation with any residents I know of. Now I understand I may be too late to the party but I wish to voice my concerns and my worries that this will make my life and that of my wife and all of our dearly loved neighbours, A LIVING HELL! Having survived one world war by the skin of my teeth I do not wish to have destruction and demolition occur on my doorstep yet again.

Thanking you for your time and consideration, Yours sincerely
