2022/2238/P	Sean Danischevsky	13/07/2022 11:45:00	OBJ	We don't need another betting shop in Kentish Town. This business will suck money out of the community into a (likely offshore, tax-avoiding) corporation. There are already enough vices in Kentish Town attracting undesirable characters and ultimately increasing crime. Gambling addiction is a serious problem and having another shop promoting it on the high street is a trigger for addicts. Have a look at this article to understand the effects of a decision to allow planning permission for betting shops:  https://www.theguardian.com/society/2017/nov/21/councils-bookmakers-poor-fixed-odds-betting-terminals-planning-permission
