

Landscape Design
Project:
Garden flat
23 Rudall Crescent,
Hampstead
London NW3 1RR

buckley design associates

Green House
49 Green Lanes
London N16 9BU

m 07903 314 524

client:
Sussan Nourshargh

July 2022

DESIGN PROPOSAL rear garden

The new planting scheme is designed to provide significant year round screening between the property and the adjoining neighbours who look out on to the garden.

The broadleaf trees are selected not only to provide year-round screening and greenery but also to be a rich source of nectar at various times of the year for pollinating insects.

The tree planting is part of significant garden redesign and client investment to provide greater areas of planting with more year round interest.

Declan Buckley