2022/3159/P	Brian Lake	31/07/2022 11:06:43	OBJNOT	I objected to the original application - which was made retrospectively - on the basis that without clear indication by the British Museum that permanent arrangements were being planned, these so-called temporary structures would become permanent. The 'tent' at the front of the building is an excrescence - very much the boil on the face of a friend. This is a grade 1 listed building and deserves rather better. If this 'temporary' application is approved, Camden should: <ol style="list-style-type: none">Limit the extension of permission for this 'temporary' building to two years.Make it clear that there will be no further extension of permission.Request a detailed plan from the British Museum for long term provision within the curtilage of the building. Brian Lake, 46 Great Russell Street WC1B 3PA
