Dear Amy,

I'm writing to object to the planning application for 15 York Way:

<https://planningrecords.camden.gov.uk/Northgate/PlanningExplorer/PLComments.aspx?pk=592408>

I've been trying to comment on the application but I can't access the record. the portal doesn't open. I live locally and feel strongly that the application to change to a 1 bedroom flat, is detrimental to the area, both removing a good value community takeaway & character from the street/area itself, while creating a very small and probably not fit-for-purpose one bedroom flat.

I believe the loss of this hot food takeaway would be a huge loss to the community. The hot food takeaway currently serves multiple communities from all walks of life, some who are very challenged financially. It's one of the few hot food takeaways in the area, which are still very good value and well known to the community - it's a beneficial and long-standing takeaway in the area. It's known & trusted and feels really integrated.

I'm also concerned that losing this takeaway, removes more character from York Way. There is already huge development, with high-end residential flats being built along York Way, and actually very little for the community. This will become such a small residential flat, I can't imagine will be comfortable for anyone, whereas currently, the takeaway is actually serving the community, with a friendly and up-standing family running a business that the neighbourhood needs.

I hope you consider the benefits for the neighbourhood, as it would be a definite loss for the community.

Please let me know if there's an alternative way to add this to the portal.

Yours sincerely
Gemma Knight
