Details of the pre-application advice received

- Given the existing character of no. 14 West End Lane and Bird in Hand Pub, the proposed upwards extension to these buildings appeared overbearing, out of context and insensitive. Note that alterations to the pub and no. 14 should be sensitive and recessive in form and treatment in respect to their character and appearance.
- Amenity impact in terms of overlooking, loss of light and outlook between no. 14 and any new structure should be carefully considered.
- The dominant massing should be set back to continue the line that has been established by the taller neighbouring residential blocks
- Re-orientation of the proposed building towards Abbey Lane to respond to the historic route north-south is welcomed.
