This tree has a TPO and should be fully protected. the tree should be regularly treated by being pollarded and pruned properly; am sure if that would be the case it wouldn't need to be chopped down. its a lazy short term solution but can create long term structural issues for all the neighbouring properties. i hope the council take this on board. we are losing too many mature trees in the neighbourhood. we need them especially as we are not meeting our Nox targets and the HS2 works are creating all forms of pollution in the area. thank you for taking my comments on board. eddy
