

From: Caroline Cooper
Sent: 25 September 2022 11:42
To: Planning
Subject: Planning Application - 2022/4062/T

I object to the felling of this birch tree.

Reputable tree surgeons have told me that whereas Camden is very strict about any pruning work to trees visible from the street, they permit almost anything to be done out of sight in a rear garden.

However this particular 'rear' garden is by the canal. The tree is visible to the many passers by. Given the threats of climate change and the need to 'green' our cities, it should continue to live there.

*Dr Caroline Cooper
68 Regent's Park Road
Primrose Hill
London NW1 7SX*