Dear Camden Planning Team

Keir has previously made a number of representations regarding Mr Dilloo's corner shop on Leverton Street.

The shop is popular locally and provides a vital service for many local residents in an area where the number of small, independent shops is in decline.

Keir has also seen the small external unit that this planning application relates to and has noted that it is unobtrusive when closed. It is also, arguably, less obtrusive and much tidier than the temporary items and boxes that it has replaced. Those items were, so far as this office is aware, never objected to by council officers.

Keir has also noted that there is wide support for the application, as has been shown in the comments made to the council during the formal consultation process. All comments from the local community appear to be supportive.

As such, this office hopes that planning officers will look positively on this application which will allow a vital, local shop to continue to provide an excellent service to the community that it serves.

Many thanks,

Richard Banham
