Serviced Offices

Based along one of Hampstead's prettiest streets, this fine Georgian property offers sophisticated serviced office accommodation in the town centre.

Luxury serviced offices in this red brick period building at 28 Church Row, Hampstead, London NW3 6U include contemporary suites for up to four workstations. Short-term and flexible agreements are available with inclusive pricing, giving you the option to quickly adjust your space depending on your business needs.

Unbranded offices with ergonomic furnishings provide maximum flexibility to introduce your own corporate identity. These bright and airy units offer an extremely comfortable working environment and each space is designed with function in mind, boasting the latest technological amenities including comprehensive IT and telecommunications infrastructure. They also share kitchen facilities.

Large sash windows and original wrought iron fittings infuse the property with character. Other amenities include on-site management and staff to assist with mail and parcel distribution, building maintenance, and reception services.

The prestigious property is also home to an intimate restaurant serving Spanish and Italian inspired dishes. There are also several restaurants and cafes in the town centre, delivering a pleasant village atmosphere with leafy streets lined with boutiques, banks and other amenities.

Located within a few minutes walk from Hampstead tube station, providing easy access to and from Central London on the Northern line. You are also close to Hampstead Heath, a relaxed oasis with plenty of recreation opportunities including trails, swimming ponds, tennis courts, a farmer's market, and more. From the green spaces of Parliament Hill you are treated with panoramic views of London.
