Dear Sir/Madam

I was abroad so unfortunately missed the deadline for this application.

i hope you will register my OBJECTION.

The raised parking platform in the front garden of this house is entirely out of character for the street. It is highly visible to passers .

The car actually dominates the prospect of these attractive houses, and of the view along the street.

The large maintenance structure next to the parking bay is also highly intrusive. Together they make an extraordinary intervention in this conservation area, which is much visited by tourists to the HEath and Keats House.

It is extremely strange that permission was granted.

Yours faithfully

Patricia Morison
