Dear Daren

We write regarding the above planning application (ref 2022/3041/P).

, we had previously submitted our objections to this application via the Camden website.

We note the plans have now been resubmitted by the owners of 49 Minster Road, in which the only material change appears to be the removal of the first floor balcony.

Since the Camden website does not permit further comments at this stage, we thought we would write to you to highlight our previous comments and objections still stand. Whilst the removal of the balcony is a helpful development, all other of our previous concerns and objections regarding the the proposal remain.

We hope this makes sense, and will be taken into account as you reach your determination. We would be happy to discuss if helpful.

Kind regards
Amish & Reena Tanna
