Job Grade: 3.2

Salary Range: £36,984 - £42,526

About Camden

'Camden is building somewhere everyone can thrive, by making our borough the best place to live, work, study and visit. Because we're not just home to UK's fast-growing economy. We're home to the most important conversations happening today. And we're making radical social change a reality, so that nobody gets left behind. Here's where you can help decide a better future for us all. As a Family Worker, you'll provide support to families with children from pregnancy to age 5 years, helping to improve futures and reduce inequality.

About the role

The key objective is to offer practical advice, support and direct case work to prevent issues escalating and requiring statutory intervention. Family Workers deliver a targeted high quality early help family support service to families from pregnancy to age 19 years* to improve health and well-being outcomes, educational attainment and reduce inequalities. Families in need of support will range from those who will benefit from brief interventions to families and children with complex and entrenched behaviour. This may include parents with mental illness, substance misuse, those experiencing domestic abuse or high levels of conflict and have limited or no wider family or community networks. Children and young people may be experiencing neglect, involved in criminal or antisocial behaviour, gang activity and substance misuse or on the edge of care.

The role will deliver:

- Effective whole family assessment, development of a family action plan and intervention
- Systematic review of progress against agreed outcomes
- Strong collaborative and partnership working using the agreed frameworks and models and the principles of Working Together to Safeguard Children and protection of vulnerable adults
- High levels of family engagement and achievement of positive outcomes *Young Parents with SEND up to age 25 year

For staff recruited to the IEYS children's centre team:

Experience of family support case work within early years services (pregnancy to age 5 years) - Knowledge of attachment theory and early childhood learning and development e.g. Early Years Foundation Stage Framework, Common Assessment Framework and the factors affecting and enabling children to be ready to learn at two and ready for school at five.
