2023/0587/T	Phillippa	24/02/2023 10:23:09	OBJ	This old garden was previously pulled out and replaced in its entirety with poured concrete. Concrete was spread over a previously thick green garden that was very attractive to see from neighbouring buildings which overlook it. The view is very much missed. The holly tree is the last remaining visible old-growth in this garden. There is no citation given for any horticultural need for the holly to be eradicated or the ash to be cut.
