Dear Mr Fowler,

Having now received and reviewed a copy of the Planning Representations from the Confederation of Local Community Groups, please accept my own objections to this planning application which are fully represented by the Confederation's detailed objections which have already been filed.

Personally, I have followed the debates to some degree to date, including hearing from the police, utility companies and others about the poverty of the plans and the unlikelihood of their delivering a viable living space. The Representations are absolutely stunning in their revelations. How can you possibly be thinking of approving this, given the potential for Camden acquiring a horrendous reputation in the eyes of everyone except development companies; given the likely poverty of living space and services (schools, GPs, green space) for new residents; as well as the negative impact on the surroundings we and so many live in?

Regards

Jonathan Potter

A personal addendum:

A resident of 11 years in the area, I can not even imagine who came up with such an abomination of a project. The planned picture of what it would look like is simply horrid, not to mention the disastrous consequences for current residents, transport and facilities overloaded by an additional 5000 residents condensed in such a small area, for the way it would degrade the whole South Hampstead bricks and leafy area and for the environment. Any project there should have mid rise, bricks and green spaces in between buildings, not a sea of concrete towers aligned like ugly legos.

I fully object to this planning application.

Dear Camden Planning,

The Fortune Green Lib Dems have sent out another email asking people to complain to you about the O2 centre, but, the plans look really good, and I'm looking forward to the development. The current O2 centre is mostly a big awful parking lot. The shops are decent but, they can't really compare to a real street with real storefronts.

Anyway, I feel quite strongly in favour of this, I could go on and on. But mainly I just wanted to counteract some the heckling you might be getting.

P.s. I am actually a Lib Dem member, but the local Lib Dems are so bad I gave all 3 of my votes to Labour at the last election. So, if Nancy Jirira tells you that she has the residents on her side, you might point out that she doesn't even have her own party membership on her side.

Best wishes,

Jake
