Job Title: Supporting Communities Principal Policy and Projects Officer

Job Grade: Level 5, Zone 1

Salary Range: £49,930 - £57,543

About Camden

'Camden is building somewhere everyone can thrive, by making our borough the best place to live, work, study and visit. Because, we're not just home to UK's fast-growing economy. We're home to the most important conversations happening today. And we're making radical social change a reality, so that nobody gets left behind. Here's where you can help decide a better future for us all. The Supporting Communities directorate is focused on creating the conditions for people to lead high quality and fulfilling lives in healthy, safe and resilient communities. Enabling a vibrant local economy creating an attractive, clean and safe environment and providing a range of leisure and recreational services are all part of this. The directorate is responsible for maintaining and developing our buildings and physical assets which also affect people's quality of life.

This is a unique, and exciting opportunity, to provide direct support to the Executive Director of Supporting Communities to deliver our ambitions set out in Camden 2025. In particular helping connect us to our communities and developing the shared endeavour.

About the role

- The post works closely with the Executive Director on a daily basis - To lead on work with high levels of complexity or risk – including planning, co-ordinating or overseeing the programmes and projects to bring about effective and positive change across the directorate. Including being responsible for the logistics and operations of these programmes.
- To work in a variety of disciplines and environments across the directorate to deliver corporate and directorate priorities
- To make intelligent use of data and research to measure and understand outcomes, inform decision-making and shape and improve service delivery.
- Take a leading role in positively engaging and working with stakeholders, internal and external to the council.
- Work with Executive Support Lead to provide day to day support to the Executive Director/ help draft reports and briefings
- Is a key point of liaison between the Executive Directors office and the Chief Executive's office
- Critically this role provides support directly to the Executive Director both to respond to the Executive Directors request(s) for support but also pro-actively in order to ensure the Executive Director is kept advised, informed and briefed on a wide range of issues in an ever-changing environment.
- The role is often called upon to represent the Executive Directors and their views on a variety of policy or business critical issues as appropriate.

About You

- You are professional: Understanding or awareness of data protection, risk management, safeguarding and confidentiality; and
- You are dedicated to inclusion: Commitment to, and understanding of, equal opportunities

- You are relational: you have experience of working directly with the public in a demanding environment and provide welcoming and knowledgeable support
- You build great relationships: you have excellent communication and interpersonal skills and are effective in working with colleagues, external partners and residents

Work Environment:

- At Camden we view work as an activity, not a place. We focus on performance, not presentism. We create trusting relationships, we embrace innovation rather than bureaucracy and we value people. Collaboration is the Camden way, silo working isn't.
